

Maybe There's A Loving God

By Sara Groves

Slow 3/4

Intro: (4mm - perc only then Piano)

C G | C | Ami G | C | (2x)

Verse 1:

C G C Ami G C
I'm trying to work things out I'm trying to comprehend

C G C Ami G C
Am I the chance result Of some great accident

Dmi7 C/E F Ami G C
I hear a rhythm call me Like the echo of a grand design

Dmi7 C/E F Ami G C
I spend each night in the back yard Staring up at the stars and the sky

Chorus: (instrumental)

Ami G | C | G Emi | F | (2x)

Verse 2:

I have another meeting today With my new counselor
My mom will cry and say I don't know what to do with her
She's so unresponsive I just can not break thru
She spends all night in the back yard Staring up at the stars and the moon

Chorus: (instrumental)

Verse 3:

They have a charted graph Of my despondency
They want to chart a path For self recovery
And want to know that I'm thinking What motivates my move
To spend all night in the backyard Staring up at the stars and the moon

Last chorus: (regular progression 3x)

Maybe this was made for me For laying on my back in the middle of a field
And maybe that's a selfish thought Or maybe there's a loving God
Maybe I was made this way To think and to reason and to question and to pray
And I have never prayed a lot But maybe there's a loving God
(repeat)

And that may be a foolish thought But maybe there is a God
And I have never prayed a lot But maybe there's a loving God
