

Orphan's Face

Psalm 73

by Kate Walsh, copyright 2011

Intro: R&B 6/8 emi D/F# G D/F# emi D C D G
D/F#

Verse 1:

emi D/F# G D/F#

True, Truly God is good

C D G D/F#

To those who are pure in heart

F#/A# C

As for me, I had almost slipped

G/B A

When I envied the arrogant

D/F# G E/G#

It seems they have all they could want

A F#/A#

They never hurt, so loudly they flaunt

C G/B C G/B

Even scoffing at God It's not right

D/F# A

I don't understand

Chorus 1:

D/F# G

Then I entered Your presence

D/F# G E/G#

Finally, I could see how this ends

D/A E/G# G

In a moment they're swept away

D/F# G

You set them on slippery places

D/F# G E/

G#

They're brought down, what was flaunted, now destroyed

D/A E/G# G

Like a dream, when one awakes, they're gone

F G (intro)

In my Father's house, I'll show no orphan's face

Verse 2:

If I had spoken in anger Most likely, it'd be heresy

They're now gone, and You're here with me You hold me. Guide me home

My heart, my flesh, they may fail You are my strength, and portion for'er

Those far from you, they will end As for me, keep me near my God

Chorus 2:

Let me enter Your presence Lead me there, keep me safe, guide
me home

There's nothing here that I desire more Those who are far from you falter

You will end each unfaithful wandering heart As for me, it's good to draw near God

May Your countenance, shine on my face